

Monopoly ownership of the media is "indecent." I believe the FCC should be focusing on regulating media ownership not fowl language. Fowl language could never be as destructive to our democracy as Clear Channel or Sinclair being the soul providers of the "news" the people have access to.